

Commissioner Paul Gibson

Paul Gibson is serving his third term as an At-Large member of the Guilford County Board of Commissioners. He was elected to serve At-Large for one term from 1984-1988 and was elected again to the Board in 2004 and 2008 as an At-Large member.

A native of Guilford County, he holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Guilford College. He also served two years active military service in the XVIII Airborne Corps. He is currently self-employed in textile and apparel sales.

He served as Vice Chairman of the Board in 2005 and was elected to serve as Chairman in 2007. Commissioner Gibson serves as the Board of Commissioners' liaison on the Guilford Center Board. He is chair of the Board's Jail Construction Advisory Committee. He also serves on the Guilford County Audit Committee.

Commissioner Gibson currently serves on the State Board of the North Carolina Sentencing and Advisory Commission. He was appointed in August of 2008 to serve a one year term as the NC Association of County Commissioners At-Large Director. He currently serves on the NCACC Board of Directors and as Chairman of the Justice and Public Safety Steering Committee. He also represents the NCACC on the NC Justice Reinvestment Workgroup.

In the community, he has served on the Greensboro Youth Soccer Association Board of Directors and currently sits on the Court Watch of North Carolina Advisory Board. His goals and objectives as a Commissioner are to serve all the citizens of Guilford County and to endeavor to improve the lives of our citizens and increase the opportunities available to everyone, both today and future generations.

Commissioner Gibson currently resides in Greensboro with his wife Jane Daniel Gibson. They have two daughters, Shay and Sara Jane.