Have you ever woken up in the morning and stared in disbelief at your prize garden after a night of ravaging by deer? Do those pesky squirrels continue to eat your backyard birds out of house and home? Does the idea of snakes in the basement threaten to have you in constant fear? Join us for a class on old and new methods for preventing wildlife damage to your garden, home, and sanity.

TO REGISTER: Mail your payment to: Wildlife Control Class, 3309 Burlington Road, Greensboro, NC 27405. Make sure to indicate which class date you are registering for.
